

GREYSTAR AWARDED THE FORUM IN STATESBORO, GEORGIA

Greystar Student Living has been awarded the management of The Forum at Statesboro, a new 780 bed development. The Forum at Statesboro will be located on one of the most attractive sites for apartment development and offers the latest in apartment living for Georgia Southern University. Forum is part of the Forum Living Group (www.forumliving.com) and developed by Parkland Development Corp.

“The Forum at Statesboro is a Premier Student Housing development specifically designed around the needs and expectations of student life. Our new community is distinct in design and offers unsurpassed amenities. Our management team, architects, engineers, general contractors and interior designers are all focused on providing only the best to our distinguished consumer. We are truly excited to be part of the Statesboro community,” said Jennifer Roden, Senior Regional Property Manager for Greystar.

Unlike other apartments in the market, The Forum at Statesboro apartments will feature TechnoGym equipment with multilingual, high-resolution Wellness Screens, Aromatherapy Fans on the Treads, Visio Touch Screen TVs, Brain Games, Guide Me, USB Port and I-Pod as well as I-Phone docks.

The apartment mix will consist of one bedroom/one bath, two bedroom/two bath, three bedroom/three bath, and four bedroom/four bath as well as deluxe efficiency units. The Forum at Statesboro will pre-wire all living rooms and bedrooms for cable television and high speed internet service. In addition, The Forum at Statesboro will have a resort style swimming pool, hot tub, indoor basketball gym, indoor volleyball, tennis court, dog park, media room, game room, conference room, study center with both Apple and HP Touch Screen computers, outdoor volleyball court, tanning beds, internet café with fully equipped kitchen. The clubhouse will contain two sections; the leasing center and amenity area. Free Wi-Fi and high speed internet will be offered throughout the clubhouse and poolside.
